M: Can we look in this shop before heading to the cinema?

W: Sure. We've got the tickets and the movie doesn't start for ages.

M: Cool. I want one of those hand strength trainer things.

W: Why?

M: I'm not telling you. You'll laugh!

W: I won't!

M: Well, I was struggling to open a bottle last night. It just wouldn't open! But then, Grandma took it and...pop! Just like that!

W: Wow! Is she secretly a superhero?

M: No, she just has amazing strength. And according to her doctor, that's one of the best signs you'll live a long life.

W: Really?

M: Yeah! It's connected to the condition of your muscles, your nervous system and even your heart. So, I have some work to do!

W: Wow... I should get one too!
